CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY—JUNE 22, 2025

CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY

Today is the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, popularly known as the feast of Corpus Christi. This is the day when we solemnly profess our faith in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. We celebrate Corpus Christi with an outdoor procession of a Blessed Sacrament to four altars, after 10:30am Mass. An honorary guards dressed in national costumes of British/Irish guard altar one, Filipino altar two, Indian altar three and Polish altar four. Young girls dressed in white lead the procession with flower petals being thrown before the Blessed Sacrament.

"They all ate until they had enough" (Luke 9:17). The feeding of the five thousand is the only miracle story mentioned in each of the four Gospels, which emphasizes its importance as foreshadowing the Eucharist. When Jesus sent his disciples out to proclaim the reign of God, he told them to "take nothing for the journey" (Lk.9:3). Just as Israel had to learn to depend on God for their daily needs, Jesus' disciples must trust in God's providence. As a parable in action, Jesus multiplied the bread in the wilderness and fed the multitude. Jesus' four Eucharistic acts sum up every aspect of his life. Just as he takes, blesses, breaks, and shares the bread with the people, Jesus takes God's revelation, blesses it by his words and deeds, offers his body and blood on the cross, and shares God's life with the world. Jesus is our daily bread, our nourishment on our journey to God's kingdom. For just as the body needs physical nourishment, the spirit needs spiritual nourishment. In what ways does our parish care for the hungry poor? Lord Jesus, fill me with your life-giving food so that I may feed others. The Church is the body and blood of Jesus Christ on earth. The Late Fr. Anthony DeMello once saw a starving child shivering in the cold. Angrily, he looked up and said, "God, how could you allow such suffering? Why don't you do something?" There was a long silence, and then Fr. DeMello heard these words, "I did...I made you!"
